VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT SUCCESSFUL BIDDING OF INFORMATION CONSTRUCTION PROJECT FOR THE PHASE II EXPANSION OF BEIJING HUILONGGUAN HOSPITAL

Yidu Tech Inc. (the “Company” or “Yidu Tech”) is pleased to announce that Yidu Cloud (Beijing) Technology Co., Ltd.* (醫渡雲(北京)技術有限公司), an affiliate of the Company, has recently won the bid for the Information Construction Project for the Phase II Expansion of Beijing Huilongguan Hospital, with a total project amount of approximately RMB12,500,000.

As a driving force in China’s AI-powered healthcare transformation, Yidu Tech adheres to the mission of making precision healthcare accessible to everyone. We are dedicated to delivering professional, efficient, precise, and inclusive AI medical products and solutions. Powered by our proprietary core algorithm engine, YiduCore, we have built a “data-algorithm-scenario” flywheel ecosystem that enables efficient innovation and cost-effective, scalable applications of AI technologies across the entire healthcare value chain — spanning healthcare services, pharmaceuticals, insurance, and patients with the aim of promoting intelligent decision-making and empowerment.

The core value of AI medical lies in enhancing the quality and efficiency of medical evidence generation. By optimizing the full lifecycle of research, diagnosis, and treatment, we help make healthcare services safer, better, and more accessible. Yidu Tech continuously drives improvements in healthcare services efficiency and accessibility: empowering healthcare providers with precise and effective decision-making tools; accelerating the path from molecule to patient for pharmaceutical companies; delivering affordable, precise diagnosis and treatment to patients; and supporting public health systems with scientific insights. At the heart of all this is a profound respect for each individual life and a steadfast commitment to safeguarding the health and well-being of all.
